CATHERINE'S EVOLUTION.

There was a maid in our place
Who had such social fame
As pretty girls can always have.
And Catherine was her name.
She spelled it Kathryn, after while,
When Algie Brine came down
And told her Kathryn was the way
They spelled the name in town.
Then Algie had an awful case,
And he was such a spoon,
That "Kathryn" was the name he wrote
Upon the trees in June.
But Kate seemed sweeter to his lips,
And by the same soft fate
He quite forgot the longer name
And simply called her Kate.
Yet Kate is lacking in the tone
That Kitty has, and ere
Another week had sped away
He called her "Kitty, dear."
Now, Kitty is a winsome name,
And some think much of it,
But Kit is snappier, and soon
The young man called her Kit.
Twas such a cute, familiar name,
He liked it, so that he
Adopted it, and thought it was
The short for Ecstasy.
A few months later he had reached
The point where love was so
He asked her if she'd marry him,
And Kit could not say "No."
And they were wed—the years went by
More slowly after that,
And, dropping all her other names,
He chose to call her "Cat."
—Will J. Lampton.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Saturday afternoon during a wind and thunder storm the large two-story frame Colored School Building at Mayslick was struck by lightning and burned. The second story was used as a Lodge-room by the Colored Oddfellows. The loss was about $700. The storm passed over Ewing and blew down the tent of Sun Brothers' Circus during the afternoon performance at that place.

Mr. Charles Bradbury, one of the Augusta delegation, had the misfortune of having his gold watch pinched Friday night. The chain was cut and the watch, together with a $5 bill, was taken out of his vest pocket. He thinks he lost it near the Penny Picture tent at the foot of Market street. A Mr. Swanger from near Washington lost a gold chain Saturday afternoon by having it cut from the watch. It is possible the same party did both jobs.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Charles Dinger's Body Found on C. and O. This Morning

Charles Dinger, aged 48 years, was found dead early this morning at a point a short distance this side the oil tanks in the West End. When found his head was lying on the end of a tie and was badly crushed. He had evidently rested his head on the tie while under the influence of liquor, and while asleep was struck by a passing train. The wife having refused to receive the corpse, stating she was not able to bear the expenses, the body was given over to the undertaker for burial in the Maysville Cemetery. Dinger was a familiar figure about town, and earned a precarious livelihood by fishing.

Confetti Throwers Who Met a Just Fate at Woman's Hand

It was the general consensus of opinion of those who witnessed the incident that the fellow who was belted over the head with a paddle by a well appearing woman in Market street Saturday night got no more than he richly deserved. Those who passed up and down this crowded thoroughfare were greatly annoyed by a gang who lined themselves next to the buildings and as you passed they would throw a handful of confetti in your face, much to your annoyance and discomfort.

No doubt this unknown woman had been annoyed in this manner until patience had ceased to be a virtue, and had armed herself in anticipation of what eventually took place.

As she passed these two young men, who were having lots of fun at other people's expense, she was prepared, and they had no sooner let fly the confetti and had spread their mouths for a loud guffaw than she brought her paddle down on the head of one and swiped the other in the face with the broad side of the stick with a resounding blow.

Blood trickled down the face of the one receiving the lick on the head, and both men were so astounded at the audacity and nerve of the woman that they were for the time being petrified to the spot.

Their sheepish and crest-fallen appearance furnished considerable amusement for the large number who witnessed and applauded the act of the woman, who is evidently capable of taking care of herself at any stage of the game.

After administering the rebuke to the young men she disappeared in the crowd without being identified.

Another woman, who had been tormented in like manner by a young man named James Evans of Aberdeen, went for him in regular pugilistic fashion with her bare fists, and when she got through with him he looked like he had been run through a threshing machine.

A few days ago Oscar Bennett was exploring a cave on the farm of John Shanklin, near Johnson Junction, when he came upon a beautiful spring, at the edge of which he found a splendid stone pipe, evidently of prehistoric make. He says the cave comprises many rooms and that it extends fully two miles.

RIVAL LOVERS

Have a Lively Scrap, and One Shoots the Other Twice

Charles Duzan and Tobe Watkins are rivals for the smiles and affections of a Miss Washburn of Short street.

Matters were at a high tension Saturday night, and yesterday, when Watkins saw Duzan talking to his girl, he walked up and swiped him in the head with a bottle.

Duzan stepped back, drew a revolver and shot Watkins in the arm and fleshy part of the thigh. This is the first act in the drama.

IN A BLAZE OF GLORY

Carnival Closed Saturday Night—Was a Big Success

As all things earthly have an end, so was it with the Redmen's Carnival. It closed Saturday night at 12 o'clock in a blaze of glory.

It was one continuous round of pleasure and music during the entire week without any serious accident or accidents to mar the gala season.

The general good order throughout was a cause for congratulation and remark.

The most remarkable feature was the fact that the Police made only six arrests during the five days, which certainly speaks well for the good conduct of all who were here.

It is something out of the ordinary when you take into consideration the thousands who were here during that time, and out of the vast number only six required restraint.

The Carnival was a success financially as well as socially, and that our merchants derived a fair proportion of benefit from it, few, if any, will gainsay.

Although all enjoyed the occasion to the fullest none will regret that it is over.

It is too strenuous and trying on one's nerves; our pastoral manner of life is more agreeable to the sedate and sober-sided citizen of the old town.

The Redmen are entitled to a vote of thanks for furnishing such high-class, clean and instructive amusements as compose the Robinson Amusement Company.

M. H. Doyle of Fleming county on Saturday filed a petition in bankruptcy in the Federal Court at Covington.

Did You See CORA?

While Miss Cora was here she was shopping around town and came in our BUSY store. She was a little startled to find so much hustling and so much business when the other stores were so quiet, and she remarked: "I am not the only one in the swim!" It isn't always that you find everybody agreeing upon any subject; every pro has its con and all medals have a reverse side. On the question as to the best place to buy, however, there is no room for a division—everybody knows that WE ARE THE LEADERS.

R & G CORSETS

"Better Than Ever."
The difference between the R & G Corset and other medium-priced corsets is that the R & G fits all over and the others fit in spots. There's no comfort in a corset that fits in spots because the places where it does fit will hurt you, and the other places will hurt your appearance. But the R & G fits snugly and smoothly everywhere and therefore feels as well as it looks. There are two reasons for this R & G fit-perfection. One is that 25 years' experience has taught R & G makers to mould their corsets to actual (not theoretical) figures; the other is that no other medium-priced corset is made in so many modifications of size and shape to meet individual requirements.

The building of the sewer insures the location of the big tobacco plant at Third and Union streets; but the people must not get it into their heads that the sewer is being built for the tobacco company alone. The residents of the Fifth and Sixth Wards need it badly; it is what they have been wishing for for years, and now is their first real chance to get it.

HEREAFTER the fellow who owes a note in Bank in this state will not be allowed the "three days grace" as formerly. The late unlamented Legislature changed this, and he will have to "whack up" when the obligation is due according to its actual date. But, then, there is some compensation in the new law. Heretofore, when a note fell due on Sunday, or on a legal holiday, it had to be paid on the day before; now you pay it the day after.

THE absolute foolishness engrafted into some Kentucky laws is forcibly shown in that part of the election law which provides for leaving the keys of the ballot-boxes in the hands of election officers all over the county. Despite the efforts of Sheriffs and County Clerks to collect them, it's a safe bet that less than half of them are ever returned; so, if this foolishness is kept up, instead of having the ballot-boxes secure, nearly everybody in the county will be provided with a key to them. Surely, Kentucky can furnish more kinds of dampfool legislators than any other state in the Union.

This cheerful news item comes from Newport which is in the state of Kentucky—
 "A decided stir has been caused by an incident at the funeral of Mrs. LULU KREISER held Monday in the German Evangelical Lutheran Church, Seventh and Columbia streets. The funeral was in charge of the Daughters of America, and the casket was draped with a large American Flag. It is claimed that the Daughters of America were told that the Flag would have to be removed before the casket could be carried into the Church. There was a parley and the Flag finally was removed and the funeral proceeded. The Pastor of the Church is Rev. ERNST VON ARNING."

THE LEDGER begs the indulgence of the Reverend ERNST VON ARNING long enough to say that any Minister or any Congregation that refuses to allow the American Flag to be taken into his or their Church is not worthy the Protection of that Flag.

FURTHER evidence of wholesale Democratic election frauds developed at Bowling Green in the Bradburn contest case, when it was found that the ballots in Precinct No. 22, which gave GALLOWAY a majority of 33 votes, as ascertained by the election officers, had been changed to show a majority of 241 for BRADBURN—almost every straight Republican ballot having been changed.

In Precinct No. 25 GALLOWAY's majority of 57 was changed to one of 52 in favor of BRADBURN. The stencil used in marking the ballots for BRADBURN and GUFFY was different from the one used at the election, being a perfect cross instead of an X.

Opinion is general that the promoters of the ballot-changing have overdone the thing, and many prominent Democrats are busy denouncing the outrage and declaring that they will stand hereafter with the Republicans.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the City Council that a sewer be constructed from Wood street in the Sixth Ward, running West with Third street, or near thereto, to either Commerce street or Bank street, and then North with either of said streets to the Ohio river; the same to be constructed under the supervision of a competent Engineer; the same to cost not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000); and bonds are to be issued for said sum and known as "sewer bonds," and numbered 1 to 24, inclusive, executed in the name of the City of Maysville, under the seal of the city, the City Clerk attesting the same; twenty-four bonds of the City of Maysville for the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) each, bearing interest at the rate of 4 1/2 per annum, with coupons for same, payable semi-annually on the first day of February and August, $50,000 of the said bonds shall fall due August 1st, 1912; $50,000 August 1st, 1913. These bonds shall be known as sewer bonds, payable to the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, or bearer, or bearer, and be delivered to him to be disposed of to the best cash purchaser; and he is to account for the proceeds, which shall be applied to the purpose of paying for the construction of said sewer; and that an election is hereby ordered to be held on the 28th day of June, 1904, to take the sense of the qualified voters of the city of Maysville as to whether or not such indebtedness shall be incurred; and the City Clerk is hereby ordered to give the necessary notice of said election as is required by Article 34, under Section 3490, Kentucky Statutes; and further, that the City Clerk be instructed to prepare, and have prepared, a book for a special registration for voters, to be taken on June 21st, 1904, as required under Sections 1496-3, Kentucky Statutes.
Passed by Council June 6th, 1904.
Attest: W. E. STALLCUP, Mayor.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

According to recent investigations, it appears probable that hypnotism can stop the action of a person's heart and cause death. A Journal, a Frenchman, reports that he has increased and diminished the number of pulse beats at will, and as far as he could venture with safety. It is said to be also proved that circulation is seriously affected, even if it is not quite certain that the heart can be silenced.

A CONTINUAL STRAIN.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. Sold by Henry W. Ray, Post-office Druggist.

THE BANKS WON

Court Dismisses 300 Suits Brought By Auditors Agents

The Court of Appeals on Saturday in an opinion by Judge Paynter affirmed the case of the Commonwealth by Frank Lucas v. Bank of Commerce, etc., from Louisville, and decided that Banks cannot be required to pay taxes on deposits.

Lucas brought suit against all the Banks in the state, seeking to compel them to pay taxes on all the money deposited with them.

The Court says the depositor must pay the taxes, and promptly dismissed three hundred suits brought by Auditor's Agent Lucas.
